

Dover Heights

Waverley Council

Dover Heights is a coastal, eastern suburb of Sydney, in the state of New South Wales. Dover Heights is 9 kilometres East of the Sydney central business district, in the local government area of Waverley Council.

Dover Heights borders Vaucluse to its North, North Bondi to its South and Rose Bay to its West and has the Pacific Ocean to its East.

Dover Heights is a mainly residential suburb. Many of the suburb's properties have views of Sydney Harbour and the Sydney Harbour Bridge, making its Dudley Page Reserve a popular site for tourist buses. Some properties have both harbour and ocean views.

The suburb is considered to be the most affluent within the Waverly Local Government area and amongst the most affluent suburbs in Sydney. This is reflected in property prices - like nearby suburbs Vaucluse and Bellevue Hill.

There are plenty of Bus Service that run in the Dover Heights area.

Education;

Schools in the Dover Heights area include:

- Yeshiva Primary School
- Rose Bay Secondary College
- Kesser Torah College - Boys Highschool
- Ohr Torah College

Sport;

Since 1908, Dover Heights has been represented in one of Australia's most popular sporting competitions, the National Rugby League, by the Sydney Roosters, also known as the Eastern Suburbs District Rugby League Football Club. Although there are not many Social Clubs to join in this suburb there are plenty in the area like Rose Bay, Vaucluse and Bondi etc..

