

Maroubra

City of Randwick

Maroubra is a beachside suburb in the Eastern Suburbs of Sydney, in the state of New South Wales. It is 10 kilometres South of the Sydney central business district in the local government area of the City of Randwick. Maroubra is the largest suburb in the area governed by Randwick City Council in both area and population. Maroubra Junction is a locality in the centre of the suburb.

Maroubra Beach stretches for approximately 1 km on Maroubra Bay. Mahon Pool is located North of the beach, near Mistral Point. Maroubra has a few large parklands, the most popular being the reserve along the waterfront at Maroubra Beach, called Arthur Byrne Reserve.

Regular bus services run from Maroubra Junction to the city including route numbers 394, 399, 396 and 397. The 394 and 399 originate from La Perouse and Little Bay (respectively) while 396 and 397 originate from Maroubra Beach and South Maroubra, respectively. The 400 and 410 run from Maroubra Junction in two directions; Bondi Junction, Randwick and Waverley to the North and Eastgardens, the airport, Rockdale and Burwood to the South.
