City of Manningham

Templestowe is a suburb of Melbourne, Victoria, 16 km North-East of Melbourne's Central Business District. Its local government area is the City of Manningham.

The suburb has a number of natural attractions, including ample parklands, contrasted with large, modern shopping malls.

Templestowe lies between two of Melbourne's rail services (the Hurstbridge and Lilydale lines), and while they don't have their own line, there is now a bus network operating routes to the city in the West, Box Hill and Blackburn in the South, and Ringwood in the East.

Sport;

The suburb has an AFL team, The Templestowe Dockers, competing in the Eastern Football League.

The Bullen Templestowe Amateur Football Club competes in the Victorian Amateur Football Association. The "Bullants" are a proud family club. The suburb also has a cricket team, the Templestowe Cricket Club, competing in the Box Hill Reporter District Cricket Association. The two football clubs and the cricket club share use of the Templestowe Reserve.

The suburb has one recognized soccer team, Eastern Titans FC.

Education;

There are currently five state schools (Serpell, Templestowe Heights, Templestowe Park and Templestowe Valley) and two Catholic schools (Saint Charles Borromeo and Saint Kevin's), providing primary education to the suburb. Templestowe College serves some of the demand for secondary education.
