

Maribyrnong

City of Maribyrnong

Maribyrnong is a suburb 8 km North-West of Melbourne, Victoria. Its local government area is the City of Maribyrnong, part of the River Ward.

Maribyrnong takes its name from the Maribyrnong River which bounds the suburb to the North and East. Its other borders are Williamson Road, Rosamond Road, Mephan Street and Owen Street to the South. The Maribyrnong River is very popular for the locals as there is a long Walking and Bike Track around the River and of course a Rowing Club.

Maribyrnong contains Highpoint Shopping Centre, one of Australia's largest shopping centres.

There are plenty of trams that will get you to the city however no trains run through Maribyrnong but the nearest train stations are very close. There are also several bus routes that run through Maribyrnong.

Education;

There are allot of schools around the Maribyrnong area, some are:

- Maribyrnong Primary School
- Maribyrnong Secondary School
- Maribyrnong College
- St Margaret's Primary School
- Maribyrnong Division Primary

Sport;

- Maribyrnong Aquatic Centre
- Maribyrnong Rowing Club
- Maribyrnong Reserve was previously utilized as a racetrack used for various motor sports events during the 1950s before closing in 1964. Now used for local sports clubs such as AFL, Netball, Soccer, Tennis, Cricket etc..

