

Sandringham

City of Bayside

Sandringham is a beachside suburb of Melbourne, Victoria, 16 kms South-East of Melbourne's central business district. Its local government area is the City of Bayside and federal division is the Goldstein.

Sandringham is one of Melbourne's bayside suburbs, located beside Port Phillip at the end of the Sandringham railway line. Sandringham is a popular location for beachgoers, sightseers, walkers, cyclists and shoppers. It has a quaint village atmosphere with a number of cafes and restaurants, (Greek, Chinese, Thai, Indian, Japanese) take-away food outlets, gourmet food outlets, clothing stores, hairdressers, professional offices, multi-story apartments, real estate agents, bakeries, a Coles supermarket, a health food store, a chemist, a modern library, a historical society, a large police station, a medical centre, a hardware store, a bank, a large modern hotel (The Sandy) with a balcony overlooking the bay, a bike track and a coastal walking track.

The Sandringham Yacht Club is host to a number of Sydney to Hobart yacht race winners. The main streets are home to some elegant old buildings, including the railway station. The trip by train from Sandringham to Melbourne city takes 27 minutes.

Education;

Sandringham Schools include:

- Sandringham Primary
- Sacred Heart Parish School
- Sandringham East Primary
- Sandringham College
- Firbank Grammar School

Sport;

Sandringham has many local clubs such as: Football Club, Cricket Club, Yacht Club, Tennis Club and more.

