

St. Leonards

City of Willoughby

St Leonards is a suburb on the lower North Shore of Sydney, in the state of New South Wales.

St Leonards is located 5 km North-West of the Sydney central business district and lies across the local government areas of Municipality of Lane Cove, North Sydney Council and the City of Willoughby.

St Leonards has a commercial centre that complements the role of Chatswood, Lane Cove and North Sydney as one of the centres for business on the North Shore of Sydney. St Leonards contains one of Sydney's suburban skyscraper clusters, with major offices for many large companies.

St Leonards is a very convenient place to live as there are many local Cafes, Restaurants and Bars in close walking distance and a Railway station also in walking distance. The Railway station is on the North Shore, Northern & Western Line of the Sydney Trains network. The Pacific Highway is the major road through the suburb.

Education;

Some great schools in the St. Leonards area include:

- A campus of the University of Technology, Sydney
- The campus of Northern Sydney TAFE

Sport;

St Leonards has developed into somewhat of a home for Rugby Union with the headquarters of the Australian Rugby Union relocated to St Leonards in 2007, from neighbouring North Sydney. The Northern Suburbs Rugby Club has its clubhouse in St. Leonards, featuring the Cabana Bar and Lounge. Gore Hill Oval is the home ground of Australian Rules football club, North Shore Bombers.
