City of Hobsons Bay

Williamstown is a suburb of Melbourne, Victoria, 9 km South-West of Melbourne's central business district in the local government area of the City of Hobsons Bay.

In the past decade Williamstown has received a face lift and become a major tourism drawcard. A proliferation of cafes and restaurants are a major feature of Nelson Place which runs adjacent the foreshore while boats, yachts and dinghies decorate the shoreline and ships sail through the estuary en route to the Port of Melbourne.

Williamstown is serviced by three railway stations: North Williamstown, Williamstown Beach and Williamstown, all on the Williamstown line. There are three bus routes which connect Williamstown with surrounding suburbs. Williamstown is approximately 15 minutes by car from Melbourne via the West Gate Bridge. You can also take a Ferry to Melbourne's Southgate Arts & Leisure Precinct which takes approximately 1-hour.

Sport;
